

Job announcement

Sudan Shipping Line Company announces its need to fill the position of

HSSE Supervisor

Basic skills required

1. In-depth knowledge of the design and implementation of health, safety, security and environmental management systems within the company's offices and on board the ships.
2. Familiarity with international health, safety, security and environmental standards.
3. Strong skills in planning and implementing training, inspections, audits, investigations, and preparing documents and reports.
4. Understanding of the legal aspects related to HSSE.
5. Effective communication and collaboration skills, attention to details and the ability to ensure compliance with laws & regulations.

Experience and qualifications Academic

1. To be a graduate of a marine academy, engineering or navigation department, with a certificate of first officer, chief engineer or captain.

2. He must have a Bachelor's degree in Marine Sciences from a well-known university or academy.
3. To have at least 3 years of experience in the field of the job.
4. Age : 35 – 55 years.

The last date for submission of applications 21/09/2024.

Attach the application with the CV in PDF format to the email address info@sudanshippinglineco.com

Application deadline and receipt of applications